Attorneys for Plaintiff DriveTime Automotive Group, Inc.

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT

DISTRICT OF ARIZONA

DRIVETIME AUTOMOTIVE GROUP, INC., a
Delaware corporation,

Plaintiff,

vs.

LODSYS, LLC, a Texas limited liability company,

Defendant.

Case No.

COMPLAINT FOR DECLARATORY JUDGMENT

(Jury Trial Requested)

DriveTime Automotive Group, Inc. ("DriveTime" or "Plaintiff"), for its Complaint for Declaratory Judgment against Lodsys, LLC ("Lodsys" or "Defendant"), alleges as follows:

NATURE OF THE ACTION

1. This is an action for declaratory judgment that DriveTime does not infringe any valid claim of United States Patent Nos. 5,999,908 ("the '908 patent"), 7,133,834 ("the '834 patent"), 7,222,078 ("the '078 patent"), 7,620,565 ("the '565 patent") (collectively the "Asserted Patents"), and for declaratory judgment that the claims of each of the Asserted Patents are invalid.

2. A true and correct copy of the '908 patent is attached as Exhibit A.

3. A true and correct copy of the '834 patent is attached as Exhibit B.

4. A true and correct copy of the '078 patent is attached as Exhibit C.

5. A true and correct copy of the '565 patent is attached as Exhibit D.

THE PARTIES

6. DriveTime is a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the State of Delaware with its principal place of business in the State of Arizona. DriveTime's principal business address is 4020 East Indian School Road, Phoenix, Arizona 85018.

7. On information and belief, Lodsys is a Texas limited liability company with a principal place of business at 505 East Travis Street, Suite 207, Marshall, Texas 75670.

8. On information and belief, Lodsys is the assignee of the entire right, title and interest in and to the Asserted Patents.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

9. This action arises under the Patent Laws of the United States, Title 35, United States Code, 35 U.S.C. § 1, et seq., and under the Federal Declaratory Judgment Act, 28 U.S.C. §§ 2201 and 2202. This Court has subject matter jurisdiction pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331, 1338(a) and 2202.

10. This action is filed to resolve an actual and justiciable controversy between the parties hereto. A real and substantial dispute exists between the parties regarding Defendant's allegations that features of DriveTime's website infringe the '908 patent, the '834 patent, the '078 patent and/or the '565 patent. Specifically, Defendant's conduct has put, and continues to put, DriveTime under a reasonable and serious apprehension of imminent suit alleging that DriveTime infringes the '908 patent, the '834 patent, the '078 patent and/or the '565 patent. This dispute is both definite and concrete and admits of specific relief through a decree of a conclusive character. As set forth in succeeding paragraphs herein, there is a conflict of asserted rights among the parties and an actual controversy exists between DriveTime and Lodsys with respect to the infringement, validity and scope of the '908 patent, the '834 patent, the '078 patent and the '565 patent.

11. This Court has personal jurisdiction over Lodsys because Lodsys has purposefully availed itself of the benefits and protections of the laws of this State and this Judicial District, by wrongfully asserting the Asserted Patents against DriveTime, and in pursuing licensing and enforcement activities regarding the Asserted Patents in Arizona.

12. Venue is proper in this district pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1391 and/or 1400.

ALLEGATIONS SUPPORTING DECLARATORY JUDGMENT JURISDICTION

13. DriveTime realleges and incorporates herein by reference each and every allegation contained in the foregoing paragraphs.

14. On information and belief, Lodsys has a well-known reputation as a “patent troll,” which refers to companies that acquire broad or ambiguous patents and then claim they cover specific and financially productive activities in attempt to generate revenue from litigation or the threat of litigation. These companies never actually manufacture anything covered by the patents they acquire – they generate revenue from litigation and the threat of litigation alone. This practice is becoming more and more common, much to the concern of the technological and legal communities. Lodsys is one of the latest to attempt to profit from this disturbing trend.

15. On information and belief, Lodsys has targeted numerous companies throughout the United States with demands that the companies either pay a license or settlement fee in exchange for a covenant not to sue, or in the alternative, face the exorbitant cost of defending a patent infringement lawsuit.

16. On information and belief, many of the companies targeted by Lodsys accede to its demands despite the lack of merit to the patent infringement claims, because by design, the cost of settlement, while not cheap, is much less significant than the average cost of a patent infringement defense.

17. On February 11, 2011, Lodsys filed a lawsuit against 12 companies alleging infringement of the Asserted Patents. The case is styled Lodsys, LLC v. Brother International Corporation, et al., Case No. 2:11-cv-090 and is pending in the Eastern District of Texas, Marshall Division.

18. On May 31, 2011, Lodsys filed a second lawsuit in the Eastern District of Texas against ten companies, all developers of Apple, Inc. iPhone applications, alleging infringement of the Asserted Patents. The case is styled Lodsys, LLC v. Combay, Inc., et al., Case No. 2:11-cv-272.

19. On June 10, 2011, Lodsys filed a third lawsuit in the Eastern District of Texas against ten more companies alleging infringement of the Asserted Patents. The case is styled Lodsys, LLC v.

1 Adidas America, Inc., et al., Case No. 2:11-cv-283.

2 20. In all three Texas cases, counsel of record to Lodsys are Kelley, Donion, Gill, Huck
3 & Goldfarb, PLLC, based in Seattle, Washington, and The Davis Firm, P.C., based in Longview,
4 Texas.

5 21. On June 7, 2011, after learning that at least three of its customers received demands
6 from Lodsys, Foresee Results, Inc. filed suit against Lodsys in the Northern District of Illinois
7 seeking a declaratory judgment that the Asserted Patents are invalid and/or not infringed. The case
8 is styled Foresee Results, Inc. v. Lodsys, LLC, Case No. 11-cv-3886.

9 22. On June 10, 2011, after receiving a demand from Lodsys, ESet, LLC filed suit against
10 Lodsys in the Southern District of California seeking a declaratory judgment that the Asserted
11 Patents are invalid and/or not infringed. The case is styled ESet, LLC v. Lodsys, LLC, Case No.
12 3:11-cv-1285.

13 23. On June 13, 2011, after learning that some of its customers received demands from 14 Lodsys, and yet others had been named in the lawsuit referenced in Paragraph 19 above,
15 OpinionLab, Inc. filed suit against Lodsys in the Northern District of Illinois seeking a declaratory
16 judgment that the Asserted Patents are invalid and/or not infringed. The case is styled OpinionLab,
17 LLC v. Lodsys, LLC, Case No. 1:11-cv-4015.

18 24. Also on June 13, 2011, after receiving a demand from Lodsys, The New York Times
19 Company filed suit against Lodsys in the Northern District of Illinois seeking a declaratory judgment
20 that the Asserted Patents are invalid and/or not infringed. The case is styled New York Times Co. v.
21 Lodsys, LLC, Case No. 1:11-cv-4004.

22 25. And on June 15, 2011, after learning that its customers received demands from 23 Lodsys, LivePerson, Inc. filed suit against Lodsys in the Northern District of Illinois seeking a
24 declaratory judgment that the Asserted Patents are invalid and/or not infringed. The case is styled
25 LivePerson, Inc. v. Lodsys, LLC, Case No. 1:11-cv-4088.

26 26. On or about June 21, 2011, DriveTime received a demand from Lodsys (the 27 “Demand”), a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit E, alleging “use of the Lodsys Patents” by 28 DriveTime, and enclosing an “Infringement Claim Chart” allegedly demonstrating how DriveTime utilizes the inventions embodied in the Asserted Patents.

27. Specifically, the Demand states:

[w]e have reviewed your use of the Lodsys Patents and have prepared the enclosed claim chart demonstrating at least one instance of how you utilize the inventions embodied in the Lodsys Patents. The images used in the charts are representative only and in addition to the charted claim of the referenced patent, you should consider the remaining claims of that patent and the other Lodsys Patents both with respect to the charted utilization and to other products and services offered by you.

28. The Demand also states:

[w]e are interested in reaching a negotiated non-litigation licensing arrangement with you for all of your uses of the Lodsys Patents under your brand names and would like to discuss this matter with you within 21 days of your receipt of this letter.

29. The Demand further states that Lodsys has retained the above-referenced firms to “assist the company” with the licensing of the Lodsys Patents.

30. Finally, the Demand states:

Lodsys LLC reserves all rights with regard to the ‘908, ‘834, ‘078, and ‘565 patents, including: (1) the right to seek damages anytime within the last six years that your company started to make use of Lodsys’ patented technology; (2) the right to change its royalty rates at any time; (3) the right to change this licensing program at any time without notice, including variance to conform to applicable laws. You should not rely on any communication or lack of communication from Lodsys, Kelley, Donion, Gill, Huck & Goldfarb PLLC, or The Davis Firm Group as a relinquishment of any of Lodsys’ rights.

31. DriveTime reasonably believes that under the circumstances outlined above there is a substantial controversy between DriveTime and Lodsys of sufficient immediacy and reality to warrant the issuance of a declaratory judgment.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

(Declaratory Judgment of Non-Infringement of the '908 Patent)

32. DriveTime realleges and incorporates herein by reference each and every allegation contained in the foregoing paragraphs.

33. DriveTime's website, www.drivetime.com, and specifically the DriveTime Live Chat web chat functionality identified by Lodsys in the Infringement Claim Chart (hereinafter "Web Chat Functionality") does not infringe any valid claim of the '908 patent.
